

Singleton Reynolds 2022 1L Litigation Fellowship

As part of Singleton Reynolds' ongoing commitment to legal education, we will award two first-year law students with a 14-week Fellowship for the summer of 2022. Only 1L JD students attending UBC's Peter A. Allard School of Law, University of Victoria Faculty of Law, and Thompson Rivers University Faculty of Law are eligible to apply for the 2022 Fellowship.

The $17,500* Fellowship will provide the selected students with the opportunity to develop their research and writing skills while also gaining experience working in a law firm setting. The students will work closely with our Director of Research & Knowledge Management and other lawyers on innovative legal research projects with the potential for publication.

Additionally, the selected students will gain practical experience and observational learning opportunities and will work alongside our 2L summer students and articling students on litigation assignments.+ They will gain exposure to many of our litigation practice areas, including Commercial Litigation, Construction and Infrastructure Law, Workplace Law, Personal Injury, and Insurance Law.

The Fellowship students will join our other students in the Singleton Reynolds Institute Orientation during the week of May 9, 2022. Orientation sessions include Legal Research & Writing, Workload Management, Junioring 101, Billing, and many others. The Fellowship students will also be included in teambuilding and social events planned for our student group throughout the summer.
