

Jennifer Redford

Litigation Support Manager

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Jennifer Redford leads litigation and practice support services at Singleton Reynolds. Her background as a Paralegal compliments her technical management skills and led her to co-ordinate the development and implementation of in-house litigation support and e-discovery standards and best practices.

Jennifer has acted as project manager on large-scale technical projects and on a day to day basis provides litigation technology and practice support to our lawyers, paralegals and administrative staff.

Jennifer is past Chair of the British Columbia Legal Management Association Litigation Support Subsection.
