

S. Lenise Rouse

Paralegal & Commissioner of Oaths

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Lenise has been a Paralegal since 2008 and has practiced in the areas of personal injury, family law, wills and estate law, commercial litigation, collections, insolvency and bankruptcy. In 2011 she completed the Paralegal Diploma Program at Vancouver Community College and has since taught several courses on litigation procedures. Lenise focuses on insurance law with Singleton Reynolds.

EXPERIENCE

- Adjunct Instructor, Law Courts Center, Vancouver
- Vancouver Access to Justice Center, Amici Curiae Pro Bono Paralegal Program

PUBLICATIONS

- Civil Litigation 102
- British Columbia Civil Litigation Guide
- Various articles in "Briefly!" (published by the Law courts Center, Vancouver)

Insurance

(604) 673-7408

lrouse@singleton.com

EDUCATION

- Legal Administrative Assistant Certificate 2007, Burnaby Continuing Education
- Paralegal Litigation Certificate 2008, Vancouver Community College
- Paralegal Diploma 2011, Vancouver Community College
- Various Continuing Legal Education Seminars