

Vaneisa Lam

Paralegal

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Vaneisa has been a Paralegal at Singleton Urquhart Reynolds Vogel LLP for over 15 years and has an extensive background providing legal support in a broad range of areas including estates administration and litigation, insurance coverage claims, personal injury and disability claims, professional negligence claims, commercial and general litigation.

After graduating from the University of British Columbia with a Bachelor of Arts degree, Vaneisa later obtained extensive paralegal training in procedural and substantive law at Capilano University where she received her paralegal diploma.

Prior to joining the firm, Vaneisa provided legal assistance within the local municipal government's law department in a variety of areas ranging from litigation proceedings to administrative tribunals. She was also a Paralegal at a boutique law firm which specialized in personal injury law.

(604) 673-7516

vlam@singleton.com

EDUCATION

- Paralegal Diploma, Capilano University
- Bachelor of Arts, University of British Columbia